

The Frankfort Roundabout

Entered at the postoffice at Frankfort, Kentucky, as second-class mailable matter.

GEO. A. LEWIS, Editor and Pub.

FRANKFORT, APRIL 27, 1901.

CAPT. RIPLEY ACQUITTED.

On Saturday morning at 11:30 o'clock the jury in the Ripley case came into court and returned a verdict of not guilty.

Capt. Ripley was warmly congratulated by his many friends upon his triumphant acquittal.

There never was, at any time, a single word of evidence to, in any way, show that Capt. Ripley was connected with or knew anything about any plot or conspiracy to assassinate Mr. Goebel, and it was another outrage upon law and decency when he was incarcerated upon this dastardly charge.

Capt. Ripley conducted himself as a brave and courteous gentleman throughout his imprisonment and trial, and quietly, but firmly refused to entertain any propositions for a compromise or a release except upon a square, straight-up-and-down verdict of a jury.

The unspeakable Campbell knew too well that he did not have a Golden, a Culton, a Noaks, or a Matthews to deal with, and was too cunning to take a hand in a losing fight.

For the splendid bravery and intelligence of Capt. Ripley's devoted wife we can not speak in too high terms of praise.

They remained in this city until Monday morning, when they returned to their Henry county home, followed by the best wishes of their hosts of friends of all shades of politics.

GETS THERE.

Again and again the truth that Frankfort boys get there is being illustrated. This time it is our young friend, S. I. M. Major, jr., son of our old patron, Col. S. I. M. Major.

Sam made a record for himself during the Spanish war and has been promoted from a Naval Cadet to Ensign, to take rank January 21 last.

With Ensign Major there were three other Kentucky boys. Messrs. Guy A. Bissett, Jno. H. Beckner and Claude C. Bloch.

We tender our hearty congratulations.

LIVELY TIME.

A steer made its escape from the slop pens of a distillery, on Sunday morning, and made a lively attempt to get away. It ran into the river at the upper landing, swam across to the South Side, was washed under an empty barge, came out unscathed, scrambled up the bank, jumped two or three fences, and was finally captured and returned to the place he started from.

Running sores, ulcers, boils, pimples, etc., quickly cured by Banner Salve, the most healing salve in the world. No other "just as good." South & Longmoor and W. McKee Hardie.

FRANKFORT BOY GETS THERE AGAIN.

St. Louis, Mo., April 23, 1901. Editor Roundabout:

Dear Sir—Last week you published a very complimentary notice about Col. E. P. Bryan, formerly of Frankfort. The notice was all right, but you don't want to forget the Colonel's son, E. P. Bryan, jr. The young Colonel was lately promoted to one of the most responsible positions of the L. & N. Railroad, and a week or two ago was elected city councilman of Ferguson, a suburb of St. Louis, and in addition to all this is to marry the handsomest girl in Ferguson this June.

ST. LOUIS SUBSCRIBER.

You will waste time if you try to cure indigestion or dyspepsia by starving yourself. That only makes it worse when you do eat heartily. You always need plenty of good food properly digested. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is the result of years of scientific research for something that would digest not only some elements of food but every kind. And it is the one remedy that will do it. South & Longmoor and W. McKee Hardie.

CANDIDATE FOR MAYOR.

From an address to his constituency, of which we are in receipt of a copy, we learn that Mr. Clarence E. Woods, the talented editor of the Delta of Sigam Nu, is a candidate for the nomination for Mayor of the city of Richmond on the Democratic ticket. If the views given in his address are those held by Mr. Woods (and we have no doubt they are) our friend stands little chance of getting the nomination.

These views do not suit the ringsters and gangsters, but are the kind that all honest men hold in common, without regard to their party affiliations.

We hope that our friend may succeed in his ambition. All our small cities need such men as Woods to the front in municipal affairs.
